Sept. 14 meeting

Students share experiences at FFA leadership conference

Guest — Phil Gebaur, Farmers Insurance
Secret Greeter recipient — John Coffey.

Announcements

- Gabe Sweitzer reminded members about the Sept. 15 Rotary v. Kiwanis golf tournament. We have three teams; Kiwanis has 7.
- Sign-up sheets were circulated for the Burnt District Festival booth and the Airport open house.
- Dan Erholtz brought Wildcat flags for sale for $50 each.
- Carol Looney reminded members about the hospital's Grin & Bear It run on Sept. 17.
- John Foster suggested that the club work with Cass Career Center to make sturdier brackets for our flag program.
- Nancy Shelton called a meeting of the Social Committee immediately following the regular club meeting.
- President Shauna reminded members about the Casco Area Workshop lunch on Sept. 21 in lieu of our regular club meeting.

Program

Lynn Laffoon introduced members of the Drexel FFA Chapter and their advisor, Dakota Tucker, for a report on the group's participation in the Washington FFA Leadership Conference.

Each member took turns pointing out highlights of the experience, what they had learned, and the ideas they brought back to their local chapter and school. A motto they took to heart was, "What can I do with what I have where I am?"

Drexel FFA students presenting the Sept. 14 program were Koal Eastwood, Paul Orton, Questen Poole, Haley Collins and Brianna Greene.

Casco Picnic

Thanks to all Rotarians for helping serve lunch to more than 200 employees of the Casco Area Workshop on Sept. 21 at North Park.
